Executive Committee Composition:

As per section 3.2 of the GAMA constitution, the Executive Committee shall consist of 13 (thirteen) members elected by the General Body. The Executive Committee consists of the President, Vice President, Secretary, Joint Secretary, Treasurer and 8 (eight) other committee members who may hold various organizational responsibilities.

Elections:

Elections will be conducted only if more than 13 nominations are received.

As per section 11.1 a of the GAMA constitution, eligibility to vote in the General Body meeting is restricted to members, who have paid their membership dues on or before Sep 30, 2022. As per section 10.2 of the GAMA constitution, the quorum of the General Body meeting is one third of the total members. In the absence of a quorum, the General Body will be adjourned.

Election Commission & Process:

As per Section 8 of the GAMA Constitution the GAMA Board of Trustees serve as the independent Election Commission. The Board Chairman along with the Trustee Board members will oversee 2024 election process. Once the election results are finalized, the Board Chairman will announce the results.

Eligibility:

As per Amendment to Section 2 of the GAMA constitution, a candidate can run for elections to the Executive Committee only after being a member for 2 (two) years. As per Addendum to Section 4.2 of the GAMA constitution, candidates intending to run for President should have a minimum of 5 (five) years of GAMA membership (Consecutive years not required).
